UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

BROWNSTONE AGENCY, INC. and MURPHY & JORDAN,

Plaintiff,

vs.

EUGENE J. CALLAGHAN, JOHN
GLOISTEIN, E & J AGENCY, INC.

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 1:08-cv-542

AFFIDAVIT OF EUGENE J.
CALLAGHAN

STATE OF NEW JERSEY)

) ss:

COUNTY OF ESSEX)

EUGENE J. CALLAGHAN, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I first became employed by Murphy & Jordan, Inc. in or about June 1980 as a coverage technician. I was never a member of its Board of Directors.

2. In or about 2000, Murphy & Jordan, Inc. was dissolved. To the best of my knowledge, at that time Plaintiff Murphy & Jordan (hereinafter referred to as "M&J") was formed as a wholly owned subsidiary of Plaintiff Brownstone Agency (hereinafter referred to as "Brownstone"). I was never a member of M&J or on its Board of Directors nor have I attended any of its Board of Directors' meetings.

3. Once Murphy & Jordan, Inc. was dissolved, I then became employed by M&J's parent company, Brownstone.

4. It is my understanding that John Cassara owns 49% of the stock of Brownstone.

5. It is also my understanding that Gene Murphy owns 16 1/3% of the stock of Brownstone and Bradley Brown owns the remaining 32 2/3% of the stock of Brownstone.

6. When I was first hired by Murphy & Jordan, Inc., it was agreed between Murphy & Jordan, Inc. and me that I would be paid a commission on all business brokered/produced by me.

7. It was also agreed that accounts brokered/produced and/or otherwise serviced by me would be divided into two categories: (1) those that belonged to me (hereinafter referred to as "Proprietary Accounts") and (2) House Accounts belonging to plaintiff (hereinafter referred to as "House Accounts").

8. When I became employed by Brownstone in approximately 2000, I continued to be compensated in the same manner in which I was when I was employed by Murphy & Jordan, Inc.

9. Also throughout my employment with Brownstone, we continued under our previous understanding that accounts brokered and/or otherwise serviced by me would continue to be divided into two categories: (1) My Proprietary Accounts and (2) House Accounts and that I would be paid a commission on all business brokered/produced by me.

10. Throughout my employment, I advised Plaintiffs, and specifically, John Cassara and Gene Murphy of my desire to someday start my own business founded primarily upon My Proprietary Accounts.

11. Plaintiffs expressed no objection to my plan and never requested that I enter into a confidentiality and/or non-competition agreement.

12. Mr. Murphy also expressed no objection to the plan.

13. Mr. Cassara also expressed no objection to the plan.

14. Over the course of my twenty-eight year career, I have developed an expertise in brokering/producing insurance for the trucking industry.

15. Based on my experience in the trucking industry, I have developed a relationship with certain business and individuals and have been able to secure their business. These accounts that I developed and brought to Plaintiffs have always been considered by all parties to be my Proprietary Accounts.

16. One of these customers is Chopper Logistics and/or its related entities (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Chopper").

17. For many years prior to 2007 throughout my employment with Plaintiffs, I received offers of employment from Chopper.

18. During my employment with Plaintiffs, I advised Plaintiffs of these many offers of employment by Chopper.

19. I have never signed any confidentiality or non-competition agreement with Plaintiffs.

20. Insurance brokerage is not an exclusive business.

21. Clients are free to consult with more than one broker at any one time. Indeed, customers often utilize multiple insurance brokers to either get more competitive quotes and/or obtain a quote from a certain insurance company who does not have a relationship with their current broker.

22. Information regarding accounts, rates, and customer names and addresses is readily available in the industry and is not considered confidential. Further, no one at Plaintiffs ever advised me that they believed such information was confidential or requested that I maintain the confidentiality of such information.

23. At all times all parties agreed and understood that I was free, either separately and/or in combination with others, to establish and/or continue a business based upon my Proprietary Accounts.

24. At all times it was agreed and understood that should a business or businesses be established, I would continue to work during a mutually agreed upon transition period, and that during such transition period, the parties would provide for the transition of House Accounts to other employees and/or agents of Plaintiffs as designated by Plaintiffs.

25. In October 2007, Plaintiff Brownstone refused to memorialize the commission agreement between the parties in writing.

26. On October 8, 2007, I complained to Eugene Murphy of Brownstone about ongoing hostile and abusive behavior by Mr. Cassara and asked that Mr. Murphy make it stop.

27. Despite the complaint, the hostile and abusive behavior did not stop.

28. On or about October 17, 2007, Mr. Gloistein and I met with Gene Murphy at Harry Hanover's Square Restaurant for lunch.

29. During that lunch, I told Mr. Murphy that I had liked working at Brownstone but that I could no longer tolerate Mr. Cassara's constant abuse.

30. I also reminded Mr. Murphy that Chopper had repeatedly offered me a position with Chopper, and that as a result of retaliatory/harassing conduct by Mr. Cassara, I was considering accepting Chopper's offer and opening my own business.

31. Despite my complaints, Plaintiffs failed to conduct any investigation of the complaint of retaliation/harassment.

32. Around the same time, I was aware that Cassara and Murphy were contemplating selling Plaintiffs.

33. When I discussed that with Mr. Murphy, Mr. Murphy agreed with me that given the contemplated sale of plaintiff, the commissions agreement between me and Brownstone should be memorialized in writing.

34. Despite my requests for a written agreement, the commission agreement between the parties was never memorialized in writing.

35. Around this time, Mr. Gloistein and I decided to form our own insurance brokerage agency and E & J Agency, Inc. was incorporated in the State of New Jersey.

36. Mr. Gloistein and I then applied to the State licensing board for E & J Agency, Inc. to become a licensed insurance broker in the State of New Jersey.

37. However, no further steps were taken and none of our Proprietary Accounts was notified of our new business as we could not take any further action while we were employed by Plaintiffs.

38. On or about December 19, 2007, Mr. Gloistein gave me a draft of his resignation letter for my review.

39. We discussed the matter and agreed that neither of us would resign at the time. We were very concerned about leaving in a professional manner and ensuring a smooth transition of House Accounts.

40. At the time, I was heavily involved in a large underwriting project and was re-writing all of Everest's (a residential insurance group of Brownstone) coverage. I felt obligated to complete the project as no one else at Plaintiffs was an authorized underwriter for the insurance business and could handle the project.

41. On the morning of December 28, 2007, I advised Mr. Cassara by telephone that I had established my own brokerage firm and would be leaving Brownstone.

42. During this December 28, 2007 discussion between Mr. Cassara and me, we agreed (pursuant to the preexisting oral agreement) that I would remain with Brownstone for a mutually agreed upon period of time to help transition accounts.

43. Mr. Cassara also tried to persuade me to stay and offered me the option of remaining at Brownstone, but working out of New Jersey should I decide not to follow through with the new business.

44. On January 2, 2008, I spoke with Mr. Cassara on the telephone regarding my departure from Brownstone.

45. Although I was hoping to leave sooner, we agreed that I would remain employed until on or about February 15, 2008 to provide for the transition of House Accounts.

46. Mr. Cassara further stated that in the interim, he would provide me with a full list of accounts for the purpose of specifically identifying which accounts were my Proprietary Accounts and which were House Accounts.

47. On the morning of January 8, 2008, Plaintiffs provided me with that full list of clients so that the parties could specifically identify and agree upon which clients were my Proprietary Clients and which were House Accounts. A true and correct copy of that list provided by Plaintiffs is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

48. I did not contact any of my Proprietary Accounts about my new business venture until after my resignation. I also did not copy or take copies of any "confidential material" or use any such material when contacting my Proprietary Accounts after my resignation. Indeed, I have worked with these Proprietary Accounts for decades and could remember names and telephone numbers of contacts from memory, so I would not need to copy any materials from Plaintiffs.

49. In approximately January 2008, I had discussions with Chopper's CEO Joseph Gurtilla and advised him that I was now willing to accept his offer of employment as a Risk Manager.

50. At that time, he then sent in requests to change the Producer of Record for Chopper's insurance that was underwritten by Crum & Forster.

51. The normal custom in the insurance industry is that once the insurance company receives such a request, they send a notice to the current producer and give that producer an opportunity to obtain a superseding Producer of Record letter to maintain the client.

52. Generally, when those notices are sent to the current producer, the request does not identify who is going to become the new Producer of Record, but simply states a change request has been received.

53. In order to be above-board, I specifically requested that Crum & Forster identify that E & J Agency, Inc. and I were going to be the new Producer of Record.

54. Around that same time, I advised Chopper that certain policies that they requested and that I had produced would remain with Murphy & Jordan since they were effective prior to my resignation from Plaintiffs. (See e-mail dated January 8, 2008 to Laura McAllister annexed as Exhibit 6 to Plaintiffs' Affidavit of Rafael Ramos.)

55. Despite Mr. Cassara's request that I remain for a transition period, on January 8, 2008, Plaintiffs terminated me and directed me to immediately terminate Mr. Gloistein.

56. After I was terminated, I asked John Simone (Mr. Cassara's nephew and the manager of Brownstone), about obtaining the commissions owed to me.

57. Mr. Simone acknowledged that commissions were due and owing and stated that he would get back to me regarding payment.

58. Neither Mr. Simone nor anyone from Brownstone has responded to my request for payment of commissions.

59. To date, Brownstone still has not paid me the commissions owed.

60. My Proprietary Accounts and Mr. Gloistein's Proprietary Accounts represent a very small percentage of the total profits earned by Brownstone. Our Proprietary Accounts result in approximately $1,100,000 in profit each year.

61. Brownstone traditionally shows a profit in excess of $22,000,000 each year.

62. By contrast, nearly 100% of E & J Agency's profits/anticipated profits will be generate from our Proprietary Accounts.

63. It appears that despite the parties' long-term understanding and Mr. Cassara's own admissions that Mr. Gloistein's and my Proprietary Accounts would always remain mine, Plaintiffs are improperly claiming that these Proprietary Accounts are their property. This simply appears to me to be an attempt to stop E & J Agency, Inc. from functioning entirely, regardless of the fact that Plaintiffs are acting contrary to the parties' agreements.
